

SMSC Significant Trees and the Minnesota County Biological Survey for Scott County

This map shows a majority of our significant trees in the two Sugar Maple/Basswood forest tracts on tribal land. The MCBS data (shown in orange cross hatch) was originally mapped but Land staff used newer technology and field surveying to better delineate the Sugar Maple/Basswood forest tracts.

